

years in the Detroit Public Schools. He gave and received respect from all he knew. He not only led by lecture but, more importantly and effectively, by example. He never left any doubt as to where he stood in a debate and firmly believed in right and wrong. Mr. Wilson offered little patience for individuals passing on responsibility as an excuse for negligent or bad behavior. Personifying Winston Churchill's statement, "We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give," Mr. Francis M. Wilson left this world an honorable, loyal, selfless servant to his country and a loved and missed father, grandfather and husband.●

ANNIVERSARY OF THE PURPLE HEART MEDAL

● Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, I rise in recognition of the anniversary of the Purple Heart Medal.

This medal has been given to U.S. soldiers for wounds received in military action ever since George Washington invented the award during the Revolutionary War. Recipients of this award have demonstrated courage and love of country. Many of its recipients have made the ultimate sacrifice in defense of freedom. We must never forget the sacrifices made by Americans who have fought for our democracy and prosperity.

In celebration of this anniversary and to stand as a permanent token of America's gratitude for the sacrifices made by recipients of this distinguished medal, a memorial will be dedicated at Fort Snelling National Cemetery in the great State of Minnesota on August 7, 1999. I wish to publicly thank those who made the memorial a reality, and I especially wish to publicly thank those veterans who have earned the Purple Heart Medal by giving selflessly for democracy and our country.●

SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY AT 100

● Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, I rise today to offer my congratulations to San Francisco State University as its friends, faculty, staff and students celebrate its Centennial Year.

On March 22, 1899, the California Legislature established the San Francisco State Normal School to provide training for the region's teachers for an initial student body of 31. Today San Francisco State University has evolved into a major metropolitan university serving some 27,000 students and offering more than 200 undergraduate and graduate degrees. From nationally recognized biology, creative writing and journalism programs to the Nation's largest multimedia studies program, San Francisco State University is a vibrant academic force for its students and a valuable resource for the entire Bay Area.

For 100 years, San Francisco State University has been a leader in providing quality, accessible higher education for California residents. I am confident that the University's second century will be distinguished by creating an even stronger educational experience for students through promoting excellence in teaching and learning, embracing diversity and fostering community partnerships that will enrich the cultural and economic life of the Bay Area.

I commend and congratulate San Francisco State University for all of its successes over the last 100 years.●
